FOREWORD

With the passage of years, you may look back upon this school year as the time when the darkness of ignorance suddenly became bright with the gleam of knowledge.

To preserve a record of these moments and the countless other experiences of you and your classmates, this annual strives to capture the "eyes" and "mind" of the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of Rye Cove High School.

"OVERLOOKING THE FOOTBALL FIELD"

IN MEMORIAM

BRYNE WILLIAMS

The smile that teased upon his lips,
His cheerful words to all,
The happy way he moved about,
Reasons are that we recall

This friend, our comrade once in life,
With whom we worked and talked,
One day he chose a better world,
And with his Master walked.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. McMurray

Mr. C. S. McMurray, our principal, contradicts the usual opinion one has about the leader of a school. His compassionate and understanding attitude toward the various problems of us teen-agers is indeed opposite of the usual picture of the cool, indifferent demeanor of a high school principal. He, unlike so many other adults, hasn't forgotten that he, too, was once an adolescent.

Mr. Bledsoe

His seriousness about education and the pleasure he receives from his work, make him a man who can handle the problems of the individual students as well as those of the growing student body.

ADVERTISING

Always give the other fellow a square deal.
 Be reliable, sincere, adaptable, courteous.
 Cooperate with those who have high ideals.
 Dare to be self-reliant and self-respecting.
 Enlist against poverty, disease, and crime.
 Find out how you can assist your community.
 Give freely to aid schools, arts, sciences.
 Help those who are less fortunate than you.
 Inspire others by loyal, unselfish service.
 Judge all races and creeds without malice.
 Keep this your land as Freedom's sanctuary.
 Live wholesomely, nobly, enthusiastically.
 Measure up to all obligations and promises.

Never take mean advantage of any situation.
 Obey the laws—follow customs of decency.
 Place the Creator before any other loyalty.
 Quickly resist un-American ideas and acts.
 Reverse the flag our forefathers fought for.
 See America, the land you love best, first.
 Try to better your life by honorable plans.
 Uphold freedom, justice, equality for all.
 Voice your faith in America's great future.
 Work for today and for coming generations
 X-ray often those elected to public office.
 Yield only to righteousness and good sense.
 Zealously protect the weak from the strong.
